

Bob Daiber Interview Log

Minutes	Brief Statement of What Was Discussed
0:19	Introductory Statement
0:26	Described how growing up in Marine, IL influenced his life
3:04	Another dimension to Marine, IL: Military base north of Marine
6:05	Greatest changes in education that he experienced -technology & “The Nation At Risk Study” and its impact on education
11:30	Accountability in schools and use of data to do so
12:25	The nature of schools and school facility changes
14:30	Change seen in School lunch/breakfast program
15:55 file	Another Technology change: example of making copies in the 1980s to sharing today and going paperless
17:48	Explains why he left the classroom to enter the Regional Education Office as the Superintendent of Schools
23:20	Political Experience - Marine Village Trustee to Marine Township Supervisor
27:10	Political Experience Continued - Madison County Board Position
29:45	Regional Superintendent role to running for governor of Illinois and its challenges
33:42	Why he decided to run for governor and his personal strengths in government including a working knowledge of agriculture, education, and government
38:04	His plan of how to fix the state of Illinois
40:40	An underdog candidate

42:30

Thank you for the interview

Abstract Developed by Kelli Barbour

_____ Date July 16, 2017