

Dear Mother,

please send this to Willie. Love and a kiss to all my Mother, Father, Aunt and all from P. Binchley. Hall

Dear Willie

[Faint, illegible scribbled text]

Flushing Institute, Oct. 13, 1859.

Dear Willie

I received your welcome letter of the 10th this evening, and you don't know how happy I felt at seeing the old wellknown hand. That was good shooting of Reddy's and I guess that you and I, some of those days when we were coming home, wet and tired, from the prairie, would like to have the same luck.
Ah! I all remember those times.

and she sent from your aff

... in my eyes to it makes me right and the farm.
... ever we boys for
... ent in from New-Mississippi on the
... and shot and
... hearts content;
almost as tall as

Clint. I am content here, ~~only~~ ^{is needed} ~~all~~ but one thing, to make me happy; and that is to have you here with me. Oh! Will you dont know what good times we boys have here; sometimes I think if you was only here to enjoy yourself with us; I would give anything, but fortune has willed it so that we must ^{be} parted for some time longer, so there is no need to grumble or find fault; we only ought to be too glad for what we have got.
I am
I am

I am
I did yours,
your affectional

Please send me