

EXECUTIVE MANSION

ALBANY, NEW YORK

November 17, 1932.

Mr. D. H. Mudge,
Edwardsville,
Illinois.

My dear Mr. Mudge:

You may be sure that I am grateful to have your telegram of November 5th. It is good of you to congratulate me on the conduct of the campaign and I know you must be pleased with the overwhelming victory we received in the election. Now that it is over our entire efforts must be devoted to the establishment of a better ordered economic life and in this happy task of restoration I invite and shall be deeply appreciative of your continued cooperation.

Yours very sincerely,

Franklin D. Roosevelt
