JUST FOOTBALL

You may talk of golf and such,
But it surely gets my Dutch When such sport makes the blood of some men tingle;
And so long's I have my way,
I'll go fishin' every day Before with such mild folk I'd pause to mingle.

At this season of the year
When the air is crisp and clear, Let's don our guards and hike out on the field;
Where you can jab and clout,
As you kick the ball about,
And you take the count before an inch you yield.

There it's pass, kick, go,
Toe to toe you meet the foe,
You pull, push and grapple - but it's fun;
For you've got to have the muscle,
To make good in such a tussle,
And it's mighty satisfyin' when you've won.
